ALL GOD'S CHILDREN PROGRAMME LAUNCHED FOR NEW SCHOOL YEAR IN BALLINDERRY PARISH

Thank you to the parents of those children attending Ballylifford and Derrychrin schools, who are preparing for First Holy Communion in May 2024, for their attendance at the inaugural meeting on Tuesday evening. Derrychrin school kindly hosted the meeting this year; we thank Mr McElroy, the school Principal and Mrs Fiona Conway, Principal of Ballylifford, for their presence and support. The programme will be delivered in both schools by Miss Philomena McGuckin and co-ordinated by Mrs Geraldine Mullan. A partnership between family, school and parish in supporting the children in their faith development, the All God's Children programme was designed for Ballinderry parish by the Parish Pastoral Council.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS MEET

The next meeting of the Board of Governors of Ballylifford Primary school will take place on Wednesday 8th November. The Governors play an important role in school governance, strategic planning, school finance, recruitment and retention of personnel. The Parish Family greatly appreciates members commitment to primary school education in Ballinderry Parish.

TWO NEW DEACONS FOR SERVICE IN ARMAGH ARCHDIOCESE

Francesco and Davis, two seminarians from REDEMPTORIS MATER SEMINARY, Dundalk, were ordained Deacons on Sunday in St Patrick's Cathedral. They will now have parish placements while they complete their studies, before ordination to the Priesthood and service in the Archdiocese of Armagh. Both of them visited Ballinderry and spoke at weekend Masses last Spring. Other seminarians visited Magherafelt, Moneymore, Loup and Newbridge. We should keep them all in our prayers.
